

Angel Marie Ruark

October 13, 1990 - February 3, 2021

Angel Marie Ruark, 30, of Seaford, passed away on Wednesday, February 3, 2021 due to injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Angel graduated from Woodbridge High School with the class of 2009. After graduation she worked for Harbor House Seafood as a driver, but her main job was being a wonderful homemaker, caregiver, mom and companion. She aspired to be a paramedic or firefighter, always looking to help someone in need. She loved trips to the zoo, walking boardwalks, attending state fairs, shopping, singing, a variety of music, cooking, working on her car, working in the yard and on the house and playing with her son. Her favorite season was fall, and she was an avid fan of the Baltimore Ravens and the Baltimore Orioles.

She is survived by her mother, Frances Ruark (Billy Hinson) of Delmar and father, Thomas B. Hopkins (Danielle) of Bridgeville. She is also survived by her loving fiancée' Jessica Smith, with whom she lived, and their son Hayden Ruark; a sister, Tiffany Bertrand; brothers, Darrell Ruark, Thomas Hopkins, Jr., Steven Hopkins and Christian Hopkins; several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews; her fiancée's mother, Connie Payton; and her best friend, Kenny Smith.

Angel and Jessica's relationship was one of a kind, a special bond shared between two people that will never be broken, even by death. They were each other's everything. The love that was shared between them was unbreakable and the love they shared for their son was undeniable. Jessica and Hayden will cherish every minute of every day that they had with Angel and will honor her memory forever. She will be truly missed forever.

Always loved, always thought of and always carried in their hearts.

“ And though your heart is longing for the dear one who's at rest, you'll know before the journeys end that God's dear ways are best.

“ O God of spirits and of all flesh, Who hast trampled down death and overthrown the Devil, and given life to Thy world, do Thou, the same Lord, give rest to the soul of Thy departed servant Angel Ruark in a place of brightness, a place of refreshment, a place of repose, where all sickness, sighing, and sorrow have fled away. Pardon every transgression which they have committed, whether by word or deed or thought. For Thou art a good God and lovest mankind; because there is no man who lives yet does not sin, for Thou only art without sin, Thy righteousness is to all eternity, and Thy word is truth.

For Thou are the Resurrection, the Life, and the Repose of Thy servant Angel Ruark who have fallen asleep, O Christ our God, and unto Thee we ascribe glory, together with Thy Father, who is from everlasting, and Thine all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever unto ages of ages. Amen.

May Angel's memory be eternal and may her soul dwell among the righteous

In Christ,
