

James William "JW" Savage Jr.

February 9, 1976 - August 19, 2020

James William "JW" Savage, Jr., 44, of Salisbury, passed away on Wednesday, August 19, 2020 at PRMC in Salisbury, Maryland.

He was born on February 9, 1976 in Salisbury, the son of James William Savage, Sr. of Salisbury and Dorothy Savage of Berlin.

"JW" as he was fondly known by family and friends was a 1994 graduate of Wicomico High School. He enjoyed watching anything sports related. After graduation, JW went to work for his father at Savage Home Improvement, and then went on to own his own company, JW Savage Construction, where he was known as a perfectionist in his work. He found great enjoyment out of listening to his son Trey play the guitar, and he bragged on his ability to anyone who would listen and he was extremely proud of his son Wesley's academic achievements. He had a loving personality and was liked by everyone he met. He was a wonderful husband and father to his two sons.

In addition to his parents he is survived by his wife of 17 years, Lisa Renee Savage; sons, James "Trey" Savage, III and Wesley Savage; a sister, Michelle Smith (Rob); nephews, Benjamin Smith, Ryan Ellis, and David Citroni, a niece, Chloe Citroni; great nephew, Maxwell A. Ellis; grandfather, George "Buddy" Schevel, father-in-law, Joseph J. Ellis, Sr; mother-in-law, Sharon K. Ellis; and several aunts and uncles.

“ So sad to hear about JW's passing. JW put on a new roof for us about 4 years ago and I was looking up his number to send him some business- because the work he had done was beautiful. He was a perfectionist, and had integrity. He shared it was his first job on his own separate from his Dad's business. He had integrity, and was fair. We had immediately connected as my husband and I had shared some of the same struggles in life and we felt so blessed to have met him even if for a short time. My prayers go out to his family and children. So heartbreaking to lose one so young with so much still ahead. Peace be with his family and loved ones.
