“ Mr. Lou you will be greatly missed. I loved working with you in the trailer park working on rental property. Drinking a cold beer and having a shot at the end of the day.

“ Donna and Denise,

I'm so sorry for the loss of your father. I have many memories of the farm on Snow Hill Road. Hog butchering, your dad would kill the hog and pounds and pounds of sausage would be stuffed; fried bologna sandwiches; skinny dipping in the pool; riding your pony around and around the chicken houses; countless other memories. I pray peace for you during the days ahead.

“ I am grateful to have learned the true meaning of working hard, the sight of a fresh plowed field, the taste of watermelon on the back of a pick up truck and the taste of peanut butter candy at Christmas time. Love you dad, You will be greatly missed.
